SOCIETY

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WASHINGTON, D. C. Sept. 29.—September marked the return to Washington of all the members of the President's official family, if not of Mrs. Wilson and her daughters and dozens of women in the Congressional set, who have spent their summers, either at resorts or at their homes, will return to enter the younger members of their families in the Washington schools.

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan will return to her home at Calumet place, either Tuesday or Wednesday, after a visit of inspection to her new winter home now in course of erection at Miami, Fla. The Secretary of State returned to Washington this morning.

John A. Logan, 36, of Youngstown, Ohio, son of Col. John A. Logan, who died in the Philippine Islands, and grandson of Gen. John A. Logan, was married at St. Joseph, Mo. His bride was Miss Margaret Powell. The ceremony was performed in the First Presbyterian Church by Dr. William Hay Dobyns and was followed by a reception at the Powell home. N. E. C. Rutter of New York was best man. Miss Frances Gray of Syracuse, N. Y., was bridesmaid. Mrs. E. H. McKendry and son Henry of New Haven, Conn.; H. S. Hyde and A. M. Stuart of New York attended the wedding. Mr. Logan and his bride will spend their honeymoon in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Huger McAdoo, whose marriage in the early summer was attended by the president and family, have returned to Baltimore and are guests at the Emerson hotel, where they will remain for a couple of weeks before coming to this city for the winter months. Mr. and Mrs. McAdoo spent the greater part of the summer on board the steam yacht Margaret as the guests of Capt. and Mrs. Isaac E. Emerson, who are now in the Adirondacks. Mrs. McAdoo, formerly Miss Ethel Preston McCormack, is the daughter of Mrs. Emerson.

John C. Scofield, chief clerk of the war department, and Mrs. Scofield have returned to this city from a visit of several weeks to Highlands, near West Point, N. C. Mr. Scofield spent his vacation at that place this year in order to be near his son, who is a cadet at the U. S. Military Academy. During his absence from this city, John Randolph, chief of the record division, acted as chief clerk of the war department.

Mrs. Russell B. Harrison has returned from Omaha and is dismantling her old home, where she will live with her mother, Mrs. Saunders, widow of former Senator Saunders, and her son, Mr. William Harrison.

Mrs. Harrison's daughter, Mrs. Harry A. Williams, who spent the summer in Omaha, returned with her mother, and has gone to her home in Norfolk, Va., to join Mr. Williams.

Another out-of-town engagement which is of interest in Washington, just announced, is that of Miss Elizabeth Kendall Morley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace T. Morley of Worcester, Mass., to Lieut. William S. McClintock, U. S. N., now on duty at Annapolis, Md. The wedding will take place in November.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Slater Jr., who are now guests at the Curtis hotel, in Lenox, Mass., expect to take possession of the farm they have just purchased in Massachusetts about November 1. It was formerly occupied by Henry M. Braem of New York, who was the Danish consul.

Mrs. Rufus Putnam and mother, Mrs. Charles Leves, are spending September at Atlantic City. Mr. Putnam has recently presented to the National Museum several valuable relics which were owned by Gen. Rufus Putnam of the revolutionary army.

Senator Catron of New Mexico has introduced a bill appropriating $250,000 to have erected a 1,000-crypt mausoleum at Arlington national cemetery for the burial of officers of the army and navy.

The Secretary of War, Mr. Garrison, who has been making a tour of inspection in the West, will return to Washington on Wednesday.

Following their wedding at the White House November 25, Mr. Francis B. Sayre will take his bride, Miss Jessie Wilson, to another white-painted structure, a ten-room house, 40 Grace court, Williamstown, Mass. The announcement is made from Lenox that following their honeymoon jaunt the newly married couple will be residents of the college town in which Mr. Sayre will make his headquarters for the coming year. The house is owned by a Williams College professor, now abroad on a year's leave of absence, and is half a mile from President Harry A. Garfield's home. It has commodious piazzas, and green blinds, and is well sheltered by shrubbery from curious passers-by.

Philadelphia will soon have a wedding of international interest, that of Miss Maud A. Lennig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lennig, of 2013 Locust street, to Maj. Robert Hawkes of the English army. The ceremony will be Tuesday, September 23, at the home of the bride's parents. Maj. Hawkes is stationed in Singapore, India, where he will take his bride after a short visit to England.

The engagement has been announced at her home in Macon, Ga., of Miss Shirley Holcombe Curry, granddaughter of Senator Bacon of Georgia, to Mr. Walter Lamar Cheatham, also of Macon. Miss Curry spent part of last winter here with her grandmother and took part as a debutante in many pleasant events.

The United States ambassador to Italy and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page will visit the latter's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Algernon Burnaby, near London, before proceeding to Rome. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lindsay, the latter also a daughter of Mrs. Page, crossed the ocean with her.

Miss Beatrice Colt will be among the attendants at the marriage October 10 at St. Stephen's Church, Providence, R. I., of Miss Constance Wall and Mr. Frederic R. Read. Mr. Francis Huger McAdoo, son of the secretary of the treasury, will be best man.

Former Representative and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth have sent out cards for the marriage of their daughter, Harriet T., and Mr. Fletcher Harper of New York. The ceremony will be at St. Michael's church, Genesee, N. Y., at 12 o'clock, October 4.

Assistant Secretary of State Osborne has returned from a trip in the Rocky mountains. Mrs. Osborne and their little daughter will join him shortly. They are now visiting in Kentucky.

A great many new and important changes and improvements now going on in the White House are in the direction of adding to its accommodations for guests and also, for the maid servants. The repairs are being rapidly made, and the finished effect is almost in sight. The hedges which inclose the garden in small areas near the south portico have been removed. Concrete walks are being laid, so that there will be nothing in future to cut off a view of the mansion near the south portico. The colonial garden remains, but has a small fountain in the center.

There will be five new bedrooms and three bathrooms when the work on what was formerly the attic is completed. Only two are of recent planning, as the other rooms have been hitherto used by the maid servants, for whom other quarters in the extreme west end of the section under the roof are being arranged. Dormer windows now pierce the roof where additional lighting and ventilation was required and the view from them over the garden trees to Potomac park and the river is quite the best of the house.

It is thought that the furniture used by earlier occupants of the house and since stored in the attic will be in place in the new rooms, thus adding to their historic interest. Freshening processes in the way of new paint are going on in the entrance hall and the main corridor, the east room having received its changes early in the summer.

Brig. Gen. James Parker, United States army, is staying at the Army and Navy Club.

The German ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff will leave Germany for his country October 23.

Mrs. Fred Dennett, wife of the former commissioner of the land office, is in Seattle, Wash., and is receiving

WOMAN FEELS 10 YEARS YOUNGER

Since Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Louisville, Ky.—"I take great pleasure in writing to inform you of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was weak, nervous, and cared for nothing but sleep. Now I can go ahead with my work daily and feel ten years younger than before I started taking your medicine. I will advise any woman to consult with you before going to a doctor."—Mrs. INEZ WILLIS, 2229 Bank St., Louisville, Ky.

Another Sufferer Relieved.
Rome, Texas.—"I suffered terribly with a displacement and bladder trouble. I was in misery all the time and could not walk any distance. I thought I never could be cured, but my mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I did."

"I am cured of the displacement and the bladder trouble is relieved. I think the Compound is the finest medicine on earth for suffering women."—Mrs. VIOLA JASPER, Rome, Texas.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

UP IN THE AIR!

Certainly there is no better excuse for a man to "go up in the air" than a poorly fitting shoe or a pair that gives little or no real service. There is no occasion for it if you wear much attention there from her old friends. She has not visited her former home for the past six years, and is greatly pleased with the changes she finds there. Mr. and Mrs. Dennett will in future reside in this city, having bought a house on Q street which they occupied last year.

Capt. G. Leyburn Shorey and Mrs. Shorey have returned to the city from a trip to Buffalo, where the tenth annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans was held last week.

Admiral and Mrs. George Dewey will leave Lenox, Mass., for New York Thursday to stay there a week before returning to their Washington home.

Miss Helen Taft is making a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Laughlin, at Mingo Beach, Beverly, Mass.
